Mission Home. At an early hour this morning, about two p'clock, a carriage drew up at the residence of Mrs. Hall, on Second street, one of the managers of the Home, and a young man asked Mrs. Hall to give him a note to the matron of the Home to admit a young lady from Little Rock. The young fellow said they had started to walk to the Home, but the girl fainted, and they had to get a hack. When questioned closely their answers at once aroused Mrs. Hall's suspicions, and she told them they must take the girl to a hotel, where the ladies would visit her this morning. They said they had no money to pay a hotel bill, but the lady was firm, and they reluctantly for 25c.
